Employer-Supported Child Care Technical Assistance Program

Follow this QR code to sign-up.

Being a family-friendly employer is good for business, company culture, workforce recruitment and retention, and the bottom-line. Family-Friendly Workplaces educates and encourages employers to implement family-forward policies and practices that work for your business. The Washington State Department of Commerce, in partnership with the Association of Washington Business and Department of Children, Youth & Families, is offering no-cost, professional business consultations, resources, and a broad range of solutions to support employers in becoming family-friendly.

Are your employees missing work due to child care issues?

Do you know what to do about it?

Family-friendly workplaces understands this challenge and has developed tangible solutions that you can implement to meet this problem.

How do you get started?

Follow the QR code to sign up for a meeting with a business professional.

What will you get?

We start with an exploratory meeting to learn about your business, policies and practices. We then go through a hands-on service to create an implementation plan customized for your business that will best support your employee's household care needs.
